	* CLASSIFICATION	ムクペ
OUNTRY	CLASSIFICATION SECRET CONTROL/US OFFICIALS  Soviet Zone of Germany REPORT NO.	11
	Military Information from Rathenow
OF IO
VALUATION		THE REPORT OF THE PERSON NAMED OF THE PERSON N
VALUATION	25X1A	a Andrews (1944) of the State o
ATE OF CONT		in was madel from the state of the state
ATE OBTAINE		MARKET REPLY HAVE THE SECURITY OF THE SECURITY
	Parties to the fillings of the
•	2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE). ROLLING TO CIA LIVERY	ing gare sales a
EMARKS		ucquamering (laureperinsolens) surre
narrationaren irano provinci al Marko.		ar an arrange and restaure
HARVEST STATE OF THE STATE OF T		ngagac Tagan ngganapir pila, ya halibinan da d
		AND THE CASH OF THE PARTY AND X1X
1,	The Kraftfahrzeug Kaserne in Rathenow (N 53/Z 15) was
25X1C	occupied by about 200 troops on 10 May 1950. Three hundred more soldiers, arriving by truck in groups of 20 to 30 men, moved into the barracks between 12 and 15 May 1950.  The 300 soldiers belonged to rear details from troop quarters in Premnitz, occupied by about 200 troops on 10 May 1950. Three hundred more soldiers, arriving by truck in groups of 20 to 30 men, moved into the barracks between 12 and 15 May 1950.  The 300 soldiers occupied by about 200 troops on 10 May 1950. Three hundred more soldiers, arriving by truck in groups of 20 to 30 men, moved into the barracks between 12 and 15 May 1950.  The 300 soldiers belonged to rear details from troop quarters in Premnitz, near Rathenow, according to a German employed in the barracks.
25X1C	occupied by about 200 troops on 10 May 1950. Three hundred more soldiers, arriving by truck in groups of 20 to 30 men, moved into the barracks between 12 and 15 May 1950.  The 300 soldiers belonged to rear details from troop quarters in Premnitz, near Rathenow, according to a German employed in the barracks.  The troops from the barracks held daily field exercises an a small scale at Semliner Heide north of Rathenow.  Training with battery commander's field glasses, radio sets
25X1C 2.	occupied by about 200 troops on 10 May 1950. Three hundred more soldiers, arriving by truck in groups of 20 to 30 men, moved into the barracks between 12 and 15 May 1950.  The 300 soldiers belonged to rear details from troop quarters in Premnitz, near Rathenow, according to a German employed in the barracks.  The troops from the barracks held daily field exercises on a small scale at Semliner Heide north of Rathenow. Training with battery commander's field glasses, radio sets and telephones was observed there on 18 May 1950.  Employees at the barracks stated that the first troops to return from Altengrabow were expected to arrive on or after 30 May 1950. The troops staying in Rathenow at the time of observation were then to proceed to Altengrabow. *  The Infanterie Kaserne and the Pionier Kaserne were each occupied by 150 to 200 troops. *
25X1C 2.	occupied by about 200 troops on 10 May 1950. Three hundred more soldiers, arriving by truck in groups of 20 to 30 men, moved into the barracks between 12 and 15 May 1950.  The 300 soldiers belonged to rear details from troop quarters in Premnitz, near Rathenow, according to a German employed in the barracks.  The troops from the barracks held daily field exercises an a small scale at Semliner Heide north of Rathenow. Training with battery commander's field glasses, radio sets and telephones was observed there on 18 May 1950.  Employees at the barracks stated that the first troops to return from Altengrabow were expected to arrive on or after 30 May 1950. The troops staying in Rathenow at the time of observation were then to proceed to Altengrabow. *  The Infanterie Kaserne and the Pionier Kaserne were each occupied by 150 to 200 troops. *  25X1C  Documents bearing were found at the Kraftfahrzeug Kaserne. They were fragments of envelopes addressed to soldiers. One was addressed to post—  25.  25.  25.  25.  26.	X1C
25X1C 2.	occupied by about 200 troops on 10 May 1950. Three hundred more soldiers, arriving by truck in groups of 20 to 30 men, moved into the barracks between 12 and 15 May 1950.  The 300 soldiers belonged to rear details from troop quarters in Premnitz, near Rathenow, according to a German employed in the barracks.  The troops from the barracks held daily field exercises an a small scale at Semliner Heide north of Rathenow. Training with battery commander's field glasses, radio sets and telephones was observed there on 18 May 1950.  Employees at the barracks stated that the first troops to return from Altengrabow were expected to arrive on or after 30 May 1950. The troops staying in Rathenow at the time of observation were then to proceed to Altengrabow. *  The Infanterie Kaserne and the Pionier Kaserne were each occupied by 150 to 200 troops. *  25X1C  Documents bearing were fragments of envelopes addressed to soldiers. One was addressed to post-marked 13 April 1950; another to post-marked 17 January 1950, and examined by Censorship Office and examined by Censor-	X1C 5X1C
25X1C 2. 3.	occupied by about 200 troops on 10 May 1950. Three hundred more soldiers, arriving by truck in groups of 20 to 30 men, moved into the barracks between 12 and 15 May 1950.  The 300 soldiers belonged to rear details from troop quarters in Premnitz, near Rathenow, according to a German employed in the barracks.  The troops from the barracks held daily field exercises an a small scale at Semliner Heide north of Rathenow.  Training with battery commander's field glasses, radio sets and telephones was observed there on 18 May 1950.  Employees at the barracks stated that the first troops to return from Altengrabow were expected to arrive on or after 30 May 1950. The troops staying in Rathenow at the time of observation were then to proceed to Altengrabow. *  The Infanterie Kaserne and the Pionier Kaserne were each occupied by 150 to 200 troops. *  Documents bearing were fragments of envelopes addressed to soldiers. One was addressed to post-marked 13 April 1950; another to post-marked 17 January 1950, and examined by Censorship Office and examined by Censorship Office

1

Approved For Release 2001/11/26: CIA-RDP82-00457R005400510004-6

SECRET/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY
25X1A

newspaper Sovietski Artillerist of 1 May 1950, edited by S. A. Durnikin. **

25X1A * Comment. The information again confirms the transfer of the artillery units of the IV Arty Corps in Rathenow to Altengrabow, for firing training. Elements of a RL Brig, possibly the 25th are believed to be stationed in Premnitz.

25X1A **

25X1A **

identified artillery units, according to numerous documents from Rathenow. The Sovietski Artillerist possibly is published by the "athenow Hq 6th Arty Div.